REPORT OF THE UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

The Right Honourable

Sir ROBERT BORDEN, G.C.M.G.,
Secretary of State for External Affairs,
Ottawa.

SIR,—I have the honour to submit my customary annual report on the more important matters which have been the subject of correspondence during the year 1913-14.

RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN POWERS.

NORTH ATLANTIC COAST FISHERIES.

Progress has been made in the constitution of the Permanent Mixed Fishery Commission for Canada as provided by the Agreement with the United States of the 20th July, 1912, Dr. William Wakeham having been appointed as the British Commissioner. The two Governments had further agreed to request the appointment of Dr. P. P. C. Hoek, by the Queen of the Netherlands, as the neutral Commissioner, but the regrettable death of that gentleman prevented the fulfilment of their intention. The neutral and the United States Commissioners are, therefore, still to be appointed.

PECUNIARY CLAIMS AGREEMENT.

Further sittings of the Arbitration Tribunal were held in Washington in March and April, 1914, to hear claims included in the first schedule to the Agreement.

Negotiations for the arrangement of a second schedule of claims are still in progress.

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY WATERS.

(1) Pollution of Boundary Waters.

A progress report on this question was presented by the International Joint Commission in January, 1914, in which detailed information was submitted regarding the localities where the pollution had occurred, as well as the causes and extent of such pollution. The branch of the inquiry concerning the means of remedying or preventing the pollution is still being pursued.

(2) St. Mary's River—Applications of Michigan Northern Power Company and Algoma Steel Corporation, Limited.

The commission's approval was sought by the Michigan Northern Power Company for a plan for the diversion of water from the St. Mary's river to its power canal, and for the construction of compensating works in that river on the United States' side of the international boundary at Sault Ste. Marie, and also by the Algoma Steel Corporation, Limited, for a similar diversion and construction on the Canadian side of the boundary in the same vicinity.

The approval was given in both cases on conditions as to construction laid down by the commission, and further conditions as to the control and operation of the compensating works and power canals, which were to be under the supervision of a joint board of control consisting of two members appointed one by either Government.

(3) Diversion of Waters of Shoal Lake.

Application was also made by the Greater Winnipeg Water District for the Joint Commission's approval of the diversion for domestic and sanitary purposes of water from Shoal lake. In view of the possible effect on the level of the lake of the Woods, to which Shoal lake is tributary, the Canadian Government sanctioned the matter being considered by the commission, and, the United States Government making no objection to the proposed diversion, approval was given to the project, with the provision that such approval should not prevail against any recommendations or report to be made on the lake of the Woods reference still under consideration.

(4) Lake of the Woods Reference.

A progress report was presented by the commission on the 16th January 1914, describing the steps taken in the investigation of the problems to be considered, and in accumulating and arranging the data and information upon which their final conclusions must be based.

TREATY WITH THE UNITED STATES FOR THE REGULATION OF FISHERIES IN WATERS CONTIGUOUS TO THE INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY.

In the continued absence of indications of a disposition on the part of the United States Congress to pass the legislation necessary to give effect to the regulations prepared under the treaty, it is probable that Canada will be compelled to resume her liberty of action in this matter.

PELAGIC SEALING (TREATY OF 1911).

Early in 1914 the United States Government paid over the sum of $10,000 to Canada, the first of the annual payments due under the treaty during the period for which land killing of seals is suspended on the Pribyloff islands.

It was considered desirable by Canada and Japan that a commission of experts, representing those Governments and that of the United States, should go to the Pribyloff islands for the purpose of investigating the conditions of the seal herd and making a joint report thereon; but on such a proposal being made it was not found possible by the United States to agree to it. As, however, they were sending experts on their own account for the purpose referred to, they readily consented to allow Canadian and Japanese experts to accompany them. Messrs. J. M. Macoun, of the Department of Mines, and B. F. Harmon, of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, were accordingly despatched on this mission as the Canadian experts.

ALASKA BOUNDARY DEMARCATION.

From the Yukon south to mount Natazhat, the work of demarcation has been completed by the inspection of the line, placing of certain new monuments, and numbering the monuments. Further progress has been made in the portion of the work between mount Natazhat and mount St. Elias.

TREATY RATIFICATIONS.

On the 2nd June, 1913, ratification was made by Great Britain of the International Radiotelegraphic Convention concluded at London, 5th July, 1912, Canada being included in such ratification.

On the 25th August, 1913, notice was given of Canada's accession to the International Convention for the Suppression of the White Slave Traffic, signed at Paris 4th May, 1910.

RELATIONS WITH OTHER PORTIONS OF THE EMPIRE.

ROYAL COMMISSION ON TRADE AND RESOURCES OF THE EMPIRE.

A vacancy on the commission caused by the death of the South African representative, Sir Richard Solomon, was filled by the appointment on the 12th February, 1914, of Sir Jan W. S. Langerman, member of the House of Assembly of the South African Union.

A second interim report covering the activities of the commission in Australia and New Zealand was issued in January, 1914; and the visit of the commissioners to South Africa in the months of February, March, and April furnished material for a third interim report, published on the 26th June, 1914.

It only remains for me to express my satisfaction with the manner in which the various members of the staff have discharged their duties.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOSEPH POPE,

Under Secretary of State for External Affairs.

OTTAWA, 30th June, 1914.

PASSPORT REQUIREMENTS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

NOTE.—British subjects travelling abroad are recommended to furnish themselves with passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory they are found to be useful as affording a ready means of identification in case of need.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.—Passengers for the Argentine Republic should carry passports, and are advised to also carry certificates of birth. Persons born in His Majesty's dominions should, if they intend to become resident, even for a short time, obtain from a British Consulate in the Republic a Certificate of Nationality for purposes of identification, and to secure exemption from military service.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.—Persons entering Hungary from Servia or Roumania must be provided with passports. Although, in other cases, passports are not legally necessary, travellers are advised to carry them. For purposes of residence a passport or other document to prove identity is necessary.

BELGIUM.—It is desirable for travellers to possess passports. For purposes of residence, registration at the Police Office of the district is required, and a passport is accepted as evidence of identity.

BOLIVIA.—See Peru.

BRAZIL.—Passports not actually required, but travellers are advised to carry them for purposes of identification. If intending to become resident they should register their names and addresses at the nearest British Consulate.

BULGARIA.—Travellers should carry passports of recent date. Bulgarian visa not required. Residents should provide themselves annually with certificates of registration under the Ottoman Order in Council.

CENTRAL AMERICA.—Possession of passports desirable both for personal security and purposes of identification.

Costa Rica.—No regulations in force.

Guatemala.—Alien residents are required to present at the Guatemalan Foreign Office passports vises by the Diplomatic or Consular Officer in Guatemala of their native country.

Honduras.—No regulations except in times of disturbance.

Nicaragua.—No regulations in time of peace. To leave the country a local passport has, however, to be obtained from the Ministry of War.

CHILE.—No regulations in force.

5 GEORGE V., A. 1915

CHINA.—Passports are not required at open ports. For travelling into the interior a special passport must be obtained from a British Consul, which is valid for one year. (Cost, 3 dol. 50c. Mexican.)

COLOMBIA.—British subjects proceeding to the Republic of Colombia must provide themselves with passports, vises by the Colombian Minister or by a Consul of the Republic in Canada. For travelling in the interior it is advisable to obtain special passport from a British Consul (charge, sixty cents). Immigrants without resources must be provided with a passport issued gratis by the Colombian Consul at port of departure.

COREA.—Passports are not required within a radius of 100 li (33 miles) from the open ports. Persons travelling in the interior must obtain a passport through the British Consul. (Fee, 3.50 yen, about $1.75.)

CUBA.—Although passports are not legally necessary, travellers are advised to carry them. Persons intending to reside in Cuba for any length of time should have their names registered at the British Consulate-General.

DENMARK.—No regulations in force. But passports or similar documents may be required by the police from persons accepting employment in Denmark before furnishing them with an "opholdsbog" (situation book), and also from music hall artistes.

Iceland.—No regulations in force.

Persons proceeding south or west of El Obeid or Bara must obtain a permit from the Governor of Kordofan or his representative at El Obeid or Bara.

All Europeans are recommended to report their arrival, personally or in writing, at any place where an official holding the post of Sub-Mamur, or any superior post, is stationed.

FRANCE.—The possession of a passport is advisable, since evidence of identity may at any time be required for permanent residence, or in order to exercise profession or trade. A declaration, furnishing particulars with respect to the family, nationality, profession, etc., of the person making the declaration, is required in all parts of France, within a few days of arrival. In Paris, it should be made at the "Préfecture de Police" and, in the provinces, at the "Mairie" of the Commune. In default of a passport or a British Birth Certificate (bearing a 1d. stamp) for this purpose, the person should make, before the nearest British Consular Officer, a declaration of British nationality to be taken to the police authorities. For this purpose satisfactory evidence has to be produced. Proof of identity is always required in France at the post office for withdrawing registered letters or even at the "Post Restante." Either a passport, visé at a British Consulate, or a certificate of British nationality from the nearest Consular Officer is usually required for this purpose.

GREECE.—No regulations in force, except as regards persons entering the country by the land frontier, who are sometimes required to be in possession of passports.

Persons travelling to Hayti are required to make a declaration before the Communal Police or, at Port-au-Prince, the Minister of the Interior, within three days of their arrival, in order to obtain the required certificate (costing $2.) This certificate must be visé on moving from one commune to another. On leaving the country a Haytian permit has to be obtained, as to which the British Consul should be consulted.

Anyone wishing to travel into the interior should consult His Majesty's Minister at Tangier or the British Consulate for the district through which his route lies.

British subjects residing for more than one month in Morocco are required, under the Morocco Order in Council, 1889, to register themselves at the British Consulate.

MUSCAT.—No regulations exist. Travelling in the interior is unsafe without an armed escort.

NETHERLANDS.—The possession of a passport is not strictly necessary, but is recommended for purposes of identification.

Dutch Guiana.—Curaçao and Dependencies.—No regulations in force. Travellers are advised to provide themselves with passports as evidence of nationality.

Netherland East Indies.—Travellers on arrival, must register themselves at the office of the chief local authority. For travelling inland in the islands, or for residence, a passport must also be obtained from the local authorities, respecting which the British Consul should be considered.

Loanda.—Passport necessary.

Madeira.—No regulations in force.

Mozambique.—Travellers should be provided with passports.

ROUMANIA.—Persons travelling to Roumania must be provided with passports bearing the visa of a Roumanian Consul. A fresh visa must be obtained for each journey. On arrival they should at once obtain the visa of the British Legation or of a British Consulate and then within twenty-four hours of arrival, apply to the Roumanian authorities for a permit to reside in the country. For a stay of less than eight days this formality may be dispensed with, and the permit will be stated upon the passport by the police officials at the frontier.

RUSSIA.—Visitors to Russia must be provided with passports bearing the visa of a Russian Diplomatic or Consular officer. This visa must be within six months of the date of entering Russia. Without such visa they will not be allowed to enter the country. To persons of the Jewish faith the visa is only granted in special circumstances, as to which the Russian Consular officer should be consulted, and in any case such persons are subject to special regulations in Russia.

The passport will enable the holder to reside in Russia for six months, when it must be exchanged at the prefecture of St. Petersburg, or at the Chancery of a provincial Governor, for a Russian "Billet de Séjour," to be renewed annually.

The cost of such "Billet de Séjour" varies from 7r. 15c. to 1r. 29c. Each "Billet de Séjour", on first issue or renewal, must be delivered to the local police officer for inscription or visa. For non-renewal of a "Billet de Séjour" at the time of its expiration a fine is exacted.

On leaving Russia a police certificate must be obtained, which is granted on the first visit of the traveller to Russia at a cost of 75 copecks. On subsequent visits 6r. 50c. is charged. If a "Billet de Séjour" has been obtained it must be returned, when the passport will be handed back to the owner with the necessary authorization to leave.

5 GEORGE V., A. 1915

In the case of persons travelling through Russia, without stopping at any point within the Empire, the visa of a German Consular officer "to travel through Russia" will be accepted as sufficient both for the purpose of entering and leaving the country, without obligation to obtain the police authorization to leave, necessary in case of a stay in Russia.

Travellers passing through Tashkend or Askabad should place themselves in communication with the Russian officials at those towns.

SERVIA.—Travellers should be provided with passports, which are required by the Hungarian frontier officials.

SIAM.—No special regulations in force, but British subjects are required to register themselves at the British Consulate-General within one month of arrival. For travelling in the interior a passport must be obtained from the Siamese Government. Fee for registration, sixty cents; and for passport, fifty cents.

SPAIN.—It is most advisable for travellers to be provided with passports. The visa of a Spanish Consul is not necessary, but will be found useful in travelling in provincial towns and country districts.

In the province of Barcelona, British subjects should, upon arrival, personally show their passports to His Majesty's Consul-General, who will thereupon furnish them with a certificate, which they are required to present, within twenty-four hours after their arrival in Barcelona, at the Office of the Civil Governor (in country towns and villages at the Office of the Mayor), in order that their names, descriptions, etc., may be registered. A fine, and possibly expulsion, may result from non-compliance with this regulation.

DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS,
APRIL, 1914.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for passports should be made in writing and enclosed in a cover addressed to "The Honourable the Secretary of State for External Affairs, Ottawa."

2. The charge for a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is two dollars. The fee payable must accompany the application. Postage stamps will not be received as payment.

3. Passports are granted only to British-born subjects or to persons naturalized in the Dominion of Canada. A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the state of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are not valid after five years from the date of issue. Fresh passports must then be obtained. When the party is a naturalized British subject he will be so designated in his passport.

5. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State for External Affairs or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the production of a declaration by the applicant, a blank form of which may be obtained at this department, verified by a declaration made by any banking firm, or by any mayor, magistrate, justice of the peace, minister of religion, surgeon, solicitor, or notary resident in the Dominion of Canada. In certain cases, the applicant's certificate of birth must be produced in addition to the declaration.

6. If the applicant for a passport be a NATURALIZED BRITISH SUBJECT, his certificate of naturalization must be forwarded to the Department of External Affairs with the declaration; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport to the person who has communicated with this department in the applicant's behalf for delivery to the latter. A statutory declaration to the effect that the proposed visit abroad is of a temporary character—giving the probable duration of the same—and that the applicant intends to return to Canada and reside here permanently, must accompany the application for a passport.

7. A passport cannot be issued by the Department of External Affairs on behalf of a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.

8. Travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire, the Turkish Dominions, the Kingdom of Roumania, Persia, Colombia, Hayti, or Eritrea, at any time in the course of their travels, must first have their passports visés at the nearest Russian, Turkish, Roumanian, Persian, Colombian, Haytian, or Italian Consulate as the case may be. For the information of travellers proceeding to any of these countries via Great Britain, it may be stated that the addresses in London of these consulates are respectively as follows: The Russian Consulate-General, Windsor Chambers, 20 Great St. Helen's, E.C.; the Consulate-General of the Sublime Porte, 7 Union Court, Old Broad street, E.C.; the Roumanian Consulate-General, 3 Mincing Lane, E.C.; the Persian Con-sulate-General, 82 Victoria -street, S.W.; the Colombian Consulate-General, Friars House, New Broad street, E.C.; the Haytian Consulate, 32 Fenchurch street, E. C.; the Italian Consulate-General (for Eritrea) 44 Finsbury Square, E.C. Passports may also be visés at any of the other Consulates of Russia, Turkey, Roumania, Persia, Colombia, Hayti or Italy in the United Kingdom. Travellers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of such country.

N.B.—Although travellers are now free to enter most foreign countries without passports, British subjects travelling abroad are recommended not to omit to provide themselves with passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory, they are found to be useful as affording a ready means of identification in case of need. British subjects intending to reside in Germany or Switzerland should provide themselves with passports.
